

What aspects of following Jesus are difficult?

(Multiple responses +)

Spending money on God (Greed is good)

Approaching God just as I am without changing

Dealing with anxiety

Recognising him

Being obedient+

Being consistent

Trusting God in bad situations

Do not judge

Always trying to do the right thing

Compassion

Busy-ness

reading bible ++++

reading the Bible and relating it to my life

Finding time to pray deeply praying+ witnessing++++ forgiveness

accepting other folk where they are and who they are understanding others and being able to help them being misunderstood by other Christians

Hearing from God

Talking about God in a natural way

Joyful in times of trials

Talking about Jesus in a natural way always thinking what would Jesus do

Finding Jesus after the Monday 8am priority meeting

Opening a conversation about Jesus

Loving all others

Working out how to translate biblical situations to the present day

My emotions that don't want to praise

Being patient+++

Not judging others

Tolerating others

Distractions+

Finding time

Gods timing is not the same as mine

Sharing faith in a way that helps others encounter Jesus

Focusing on God in very difficult circumstances

Discipline

Laying down my opinions and seeing issues from Christ's point of view

When I am struggling as a parent

Other Christians

Prioritising time to hear from him

Knowing as I engage and look at other people that I am looking at and engaging with Christ

Sharing my life with Christians I hardly know.

Making disciples

Fasting

Spending time with God

Fasting

Love your neighbours

Offering to pray for friends

Not getting down when stuff happens

Hearing what God is saying to me

Logic vs faith

Feeling too small to matter

Being still to focus on God

Finding Gods way rather than my own

Some areas of self control

Sunday 21 September 2014