

STEWARDED YOUR SUNDAY SPEAK AND SERVE

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If you speak, you should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If you serve, you should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen. (1 Pe 4:10 & 11)

Speaking

- Providing an ear and shoulder for mums with new babies
- Pray for set-up team and leaders
- Give feedback to speakers
- To talk to people I don't normally
- Share my experiences more
- Talk to new people more
- To say more in the meetings and not worry
- To spend less time on Sunday mornings reading and to pray for people in the meeting
- Finding more opportunity to explore spiritual issues with people I spend a lot of time with
- Speak to somebody different
- Realise why I'm here on Sundays (apart from responsibilities)
- To create the time to speak longer and in more depth with people and to listen to God with them
- To have confidence to pray out loud during worship
- Appreciate PA system people more
- Pray more for the heads of other nations
- Get up and say something
- Not assume [what I say] won't be helpful
- Talk/listen to somebody I don't normally
- Hearing God for a word of encouragement
- Try to talk to folks I don't normally do and to share testimony
- To chase up more detailed prayer requests
- To listen and take notice when God speaks—not to miss an opportunity

Serving

- Teas and coffees
- Help in crèche
- Pray for people
- Doing tech stuff
- To sit with somebody new
- Decide to become more involved again
- Help with chairs
- Coming prepared with something from God above my normal duties
- Arrive earlier
- To give even more time to serve
- To put more time into practical areas instead of doing it the easiest way
- See a need and fill it
- Help where I can
- Not assume somebody else will do it
- Do more jobs in the church
- Looking out for things that should have happened and might have been missed
- To encourage people more
